

Dublin Directories, Almanacks, Ancient records, &c.

Anne van Weerden, Utrecht, 2024

This document contains an overview of online sources used in the searches for the Dublin Hutton and Hamilton families, ancestors of Sir William Rowan Hamilton (1805-1865), mathematician and astronomer, Andrews professor of Astronomy and Royal Astronomer of Ireland, <http://sirwrhamilton.eu>.

Much effort was made to find freely available sources; nearly all urls in the lists are to open access scans.

The only two sources used which are not open access can be recognised by their urls,

-- Family Search, <https://familysearch.org>, an account is mandatory, but free of charge,

-- Find my Past, <https://findmypast.com>, only by paid subscription. Although this website contains many editions of the Almanacks listed below, they are only inserted when no other online source was available.

The largest part of this overview is taken up by a list of all Dublin Almanacks and Directories found online, from the earliest editions until 1840.

Historical Maps of Dublin: Many of the early Dublin Directories contain maps of Dublin of that year. They are visible in the scans of the Oireachtas Library, but not in the scans on HathiTrust.

Also some of the Ancient records have maps of Dublin: vol 2, 1610; vol 5, 1685, (no detailed scan); vol 7, 1728; vol 11, 1765 or 1765; vol 13, 1780.

Dublin Directories and almanacks, 1729-1840:

- Gentleman and Citizen's Almanack,
- Gentleman's and Citizen's Almanack,
- The Dublin Directory,
- Wilson's Dublin Directory,
- Treble Almanack,

The Gentleman's and Citizen's Almanack, The English Registry, and Wilson's Dublin Directory,
-- The Dublin Almanack and General Register of Ireland

For some years no online sources were found. For many other years, one of the titles was found, some other was not. Most volumes can be found in libraries via WorldCat, <https://worldcat.org>.

A history of the Dublin Directory can be found at the Dictionary of Irish Biography, <https://www.dib.ie/biography/wilson-peter-a9077>

The most general and direct way of pointing to the first pages of the various parts within one volume appeared to be to give the url; just past the extensions before the subtitles after the main url.
